Personal Profile

I am a Product Designer finishing my four years of study this June. I am a good communicator, organiser and can approach problems with creative thinking and an open mind to unearth new opportunities and solutions. I dedicate myself to exceeding expectations as I am ambitious, hard working and committed to success. As a hard-working designer, I am capable of using my design skills to work in multi disciplinary teams or on my own to achieve results that are challenging, fun and exciting. I aim to work in a productive environment with like minded individuals where I can learn new skills, and confidently work through new processes.

Employment:

July 2009 - Present: Jute Cafe Bar - DCA
2007-2008: The Three Sisters, Edinburgh

Other Experience

Freelance Design:- GateChurch International - Filming and editing promo material
- Man Alive Studios - Graphics Flyer Design
- Rachel Fraser Beauty - Gift Voucher Design

Education

PRODUCT DESIGN

Duncan of Jordanstone Collage of Art and Design, Dundee University
Degree Classification: BSc(Hons) 1st

Crossing the boundaries between design and engineering and also other design disciplines, the course allows students to design, make and showcase their creative products. With open briefs set by leading industry companies such as NCR and Microsoft and also local companies like Sensation Science Centre and Presentation Products, I am confident at offering my design thinking skills to companies both globally and locally.
